Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Communion Reflection

The cost of talent.....

I have not the fine audacity of men who have mastered the pen or the purse.
The complexes of many slaves are in my verse.
When I straighten my shoulders to look at the world boldly I see talent coldly damning me to stooped attrition.
Mine was a begger's mission to dreams of beauty I should have been born blind.
I should have been content to walk behind watching the reflection of God's delight:
a second-hand teller of the story
a second-hand glory.
It was not right
that mind should have echoed life's overtones that I should have seen a flower petalled in mighty power.
