28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Communion Reflection

Entering the kingdom of love.....

Jesus saw that the rich young man had great potential, so he invited him to enter the world of sharing. But he wasn't up to it – riches got in the way. As he went away a sadness descended on him, the sadness that descends on us when we choose to live for ourselves. Even though Jesus was sad to see him go, nevertheless he let him go. There's no point in forcing people to make sacrifices. If you take things from people, they are impoverished; but if you can get them to give up, they are enriched. People are essentially good, but this goodness has to be awakened and called forth, if they are to enter the kingdom of love.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we are in the Thanksgiving weekend, giving thanks to our loving God for all the heavenly and earthly blessings that He has been showering upon us. On my part, I'm grateful to the Lord for giving me the opportunity to be with you this year, back to my internship Parish, with our Pastor Fr. Larry, whom I appreciate very much. Thank you to our staff, volunteers, and you, our parishioners for your witness to hope in the Lord, despite Covid and other difficulties. As it is time for me to move on to St. Gregory the Great Parish in Oshawa, to Fr. Larry's internship Parish, I pray that our good Lord Jesus may bless you all. Please, remember me in your prayers.

Yours in Christ, Fr. Marijan

If we really believe in something, it does not seem to be a sacrifice to give up everything else to pursue that new dream. Jesus asks the same as any great leader...total dedication; but He promises rewards no one else can promise. "You will have treasure in Heaven, then come, follow Me." Come, follow the call of Christ as a priest, sister, brother or deacon. If you think God is calling you to one of these, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

email vocations@archtoronto.org

Parish Headcount – Once again the Archdiocese will conduct a headcount in all the parishes the weekends of October 16/17 & October 23/24. This will help provide an accurate profile of Mass attendance in the Archdiocese of Toronto despite the pandemic.

GOOD SHEPHERD CENTRE – in need of Casseroles, recipes and pans are available at the bottom of the south stairs to the parish hall. Community volunteer hours will be given to grade 7 Confirmation students and high school students.
