Communion Reflection

Being with Christ...

Jesus says: 'Whoever is not with me is against me; and whoever does not gather with me scatters'. I sometimes feel that my life is like scrubland, halfway between garden and desert. I sometimes feel that I live in a world of twilight, halfway between day and night. I sometimes feel like lukewarm water, halfway between hot and cold. I sometimes feel that I am in a state of indifference halfway between love and hate. I sometimes feel I am trudging along a safe little path halfway between good and evil. Lord, save me from the illusion that because I am not against you, I am therefore for you. Above all, save me from being neutral.

Hello everyone, My name is Jesus (pronunciation Hey-Sous) Fidel Añon. I was born in Murcia, a city in the south of Spain. I am 25 years old, I was born on the 4th of December 1996. I am the second of two siblings, I have one older sister, and thanks to God my parents are still alive and married. They are practicing Catholics, and they passed on their faith to us. After I graduated high school I went to college and I finished my degree in Pathological Anatomy in 2016. That year, in a vocational meeting I started discerning my vocation for the priesthood and after a retreat in Italy I was sent to the Redemptoris Mater Missionary Seminary of Toronto, which is a diocesan missionary seminary. I have been studying for this diocese for 6 years, excluding one year in which after I finished my studies in philosophy God gave me the grace to stay one year in the Holy Land, serving the pilgrims and visiting the Holy Places. Now I have started my internship at Blessed Sacrament parish and I am excited to stay here serving this parish and share this year with all of you. Please pray for me.
