Life & Religion...

Who can separate his faith from his actions, or his belief from his occupations? Who can spread his hours before him, saying: 'This for God and this is for myself; this for my soul and this other for my body?' He who wears his morality but as his best garment were better naked. Your daily life is your temple and your religion. Whenever you enter into it take with you your all. Take the plough and the forge and the mallet and the lute, the things you have fashioned in necessity or for delight. And take with you all men. And if you would know God...look about you and you will see him plying with your children
